

I am strongly opposed to lifting the ban on cross-ownership of media which currently prevents a single company from owning newspapers and broadcast stations in the same market. Without these protections, our country will lose its independent voices!

Thank you,
Francis A. McGillicuddy